MEXICAN AMBASSADOR REPORTS SOVIET REACTION TO PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION

FR Moscow: LUCIO
TO Mexico City: Foreign Ministry
Msg Nr: 201

29 Nov 63

--

In reference to the repercussions in the Soviet Union to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Basing the first on personal judgment and the rest on information from reliable diplomatic sources, I will discuss the following evaluations:

The deep grief produced here by the above-mentioned assassination was absolutely spontaneous and due to the high culture of the Soviet people which enables them [1 gr G] rise above world actions as well as to the traditional Russian sentimentality.

As soon as the news was known, and in the face of possible international complications, the military authorities intensified security measures which have now returned to normal.

High Soviet officials are preoccupied with the stand the new President of the United States may take on everything regarding Cuba, and, although MIKOYAN seemed to have been (B val impressed) after speaking with the President and other high-ranking United States officials, they are moderately calm. Soviet leaders will wait to learn how the matters of the purchase of wheat will be settled in the United States as well as the reaching new U.S.-Soviet cultural agreement, for the purpose of gaining a clearer idea of the policy in question.
